'Do to others as you would have them do to you'

Matthew 7.12

The mosaic above is hanging in the Headquarters of the United Nations in New York and is called 'The Golden Rule'. It was presented in 1985 by Nancy Reagan and weighs half a ton! It depicts people of different nationalities supporting each other, coming together in mutual respect. It serves as a permanent reminder that we need to treat people how we want to be treated.

Stars of the Week

2. Emelia (1.56)
3. Junior (1.76)

This online programme is paid for by the Parent's Association. It is a shame that most children are not playing it regularly.

All children from year 2 upwards should be accessing the programme regularly at home to help them develop their recall and their speed.

Thanks to the efforts of Emerald class, St. Thomas' is now in 11th place in the league table. Well done and thank you Emerald class.

Milnrow and Newhey Carnival

We had a fantastic turn out on Saturday for the carnival parade. Two of our children were chosen to lead the whole parade – Charlie Woodhouse and Maisie Cox (who stepped in for Zak Taylor).

The children looked splendid in their outfits celebrating our wonderful world and their scooters were great too. Even many of their parents got involved by dressing up and by joining us on the parade – waving banners and flags and getting into the spirit of the event.

Thank you to:

Cody, Filip, Gosia, Teddy, Charlie W, Christian, Freddie, Jasper, Violet, Matilda, Neave, Isabella, Joey, Emily, Scarlett F, Hector, Tabetha, Paddy, Martha, Eden, Heidi G, Willow, Zak H, Josephine, Stuart, Tilley, Charlie W, Maisie, Woden, Toby, Hugo, Mrs Greaves (and her mum), Mrs Smith, Mrs Hilton, Miss Lack (and her extended family), Mr and Mrs Cleghorn, Mr Whipp, Mrs Smith, Mr Foster, Mr and Mrs Fitton, Mrs Lowe, Miss Simpson and Molly, Mrs Robinson, Ms McAllister and Mrs Whittles who all turned up on Saturday.

In addition, thank you to the staff who painted the banner and flags.
